Lenard 'Enigma' Trae

Enigma started dancing in 2002 and quickly excelled in the Funkstyle dances known as Popping, Waving and Boogaloo as well as many other styles under the Funkstyles umbrella. Since 2005 he has been teaching in Victoria and run workshops nationally. Enigma is the co-founder of the Nomadic Funk Crew, one of the first all Funkstyle crews in Victoria who perform extensively throughout Melbourne. Other crews he is part of are Movement Crew and Wicked Force with whom he has performed for international acts such as DJ Q-bert, MC Supernatural, DJ Shadow, DJ Dexta and The Cat Empire. As well as club shows and other performances Enigma is constantly honing his skills competing in various competitions at home and interstate. He came first at Freestyle Fed-Square 2009 1 on 1 Popping.

"My goal is to help the Funkstyle community to continue to grow, to spread knowledge and educate the next generation of up and coming dancers who share my passion for these styles".

Andre Widjaja

Andre, inspired by US pioneers the 'Electric Boogaloo's' and the 'Lockers', has been actively involved in the Streetdance community since his humble beginnings. Focusing mainly on Funkstyles (Popping and Locking), he is also passionate about all other aspects of Streetdance styles including Breaking, House and Hip Hop. Over the years he has been inspired by other great dancers amongst the community and has had the privilege to be taught and mentored by Suga Pop (Electric Boogaloo's) and Greg Campbell Jnr (Lockers).

Andre combines his dance skills with his thirst for knowledge of dance history (the evolution of music and dance), he is known for his Streetdance mentality and along with his soulful creativity, has earned him a place as one of Australia's most talented Streetdancers. As co-founder and original member of 'Nomadic Funk', he has gone to perform with bands such as the 'Cat Empire', and has had the honor to judge numerous Streetdance competitions based on his title as previous champions.

Andre is a firm believer in spreading his knowledge of dance through community workshops, class and performances to the next generation of dancers.
